To have and to hold the same, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in any wise appertaining forever.

This conveyance is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of thirty promissory notes each dated August 15th, 1913, payable to John F. Winans and William F. Harn, one year from date of same, with interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually and a reasonable amount additional as attorney's fees in case of said note being placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, said notes being numbered from one to thirty, both inclusive, the principal amounts in said notes being as follows: Ten notes for $500.00 each and twenty notes for $1,000.00 each, and signed by the Capital Realty Company.

Option is hereby given the mortgagor to pay $50.00 or any multiple thereof at any time and upon any such payments the mortgagees agree to release from this mortgage a relative, proportionate part of the real estate in value based upon the values placed thereon by the Assessor in the 1913 assessment.

Said first party hereby covenants that it is the owner in fee simple of said property and premises and that the same were granted free of all encumbrances. That it has good right and authority to convey and encumber the same and it will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claim of all persons whomsoever. Said first party agrees to pay all taxes and assessments lawfully assessed on said premises.

Now if said first party shall pay or cause to be paid to said second parties, their heirs or assigns, said sums of money in the above described notes mentioned, together with the interest thereon according to the terms and tenor of said notes, and shall pay such taxes and assessments, then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void, otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. If any and all taxes and assessments which are or may be levied and assessed lawfully against said premises or any part thereof are not paid before delinquent then the mortgagees may pay such taxes and assessments and shall be allowed interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent. per annum until paid, and this mortgage shall stand as security for all such payments; and if said sum or sums of money or any part thereof is not paid when due, or any taxes or assessments are not paid before delinquent, the holder of holders of said notes and this mortgage may elect to declare the whole sum or sums and interest thereon due and payable at once, and proceed to collect said debt including attorney's fees and to foreclose this mortgage; and shall become entitled to possession of said premises.

In witness whereof the said party of the first part has caused these presents executed under its corporate name by its president and its corporate seal to be affixed, and attested by its Secretary, the day and year above written.
