

MISCELLANEOUS RECORD No. 304

It is expressly understood and agreed that all of the said above described property is merely delivered to the said party of the second part for the sole and distinct purpose of selling the same for and on behalf of the said party of the first part, her, heirs, successors and assigns and that the said party of the second part hereby agrees that no consideration has heretofore passed for the conveying of said property, but merely as a matter of convenience the said deeds were executed and delivered to the said party of the second part.

The said party of the second part hereby agrees that as and when the said property is sold that he will account to the said party of the first part, her heirs, successors and assigns for the proceeds of any sale, less such deductions for expense and commissions as the said party of the second part may incur in the sale, transfer or assignment of said property hereinabove described.

This agreement shall be in effect for a period of thirty (30) days from the date hereof and in the event that the said property is not sold or disposed of or paid for in accordance with this agreement, the said party of the second part agrees that he will reconvey the said property to the said party of the first part, her heirs, successors or assigns,

The said party of the second part represents that he has not heretofore sold, disposed of, hypothecated, pledged or in any other wise encumbered said mineral property or deeds hereinabove referred to by the legal description and that the same are free and clear of all encumbrances, merely standing in the name of the said party of the second part as to the legal title and that the equitable title and lawful owner of the said property hereinabove described is the said party of the first part.

The said party of the second part hereby agrees to and with the said party of the first part, her heirs, successors and assigns, that he will make, execute and deliver any and all necessary documents, papers and writings necessary to reconvey the same to the said party of the first part without any expense attached thereto.

It is further mutually understood and agreed between the respective parties that the said party of the second part is merely acting as the agent and representative of the said party of the first part and that he warrants that no dower or other rights have accrued or attached to any other person or persons by reason of the conveyance hereinabove referred to and that in the event any such right has attached, or will hereinafter be attached, that he will cause the said party to release the same.

It is further mutually understood and agreed that insofar as the force, validity and effect of this instrument is concerned that the same shall be interpreted by the laws of the State of Oklahoma and that the said party of the first part shall have the lawful right to record this instrument with the same force and effect as if the same were on lawful forms of instruments or deeds required in the respective state wherein the said property is located.

In the event that any of the above described property has been sold, assigned or delivered to any third person and the full proceeds and consideration of such sale has not been received by the said party of the second part, that then and in that event the said party of the second part hereby sells, assigns and sets over to the said party of the first part, her heirs, successors and assigns all his right, title and interest in and to the proceeds, monies or other consideration for the same and hereby appoints the said party of the first part his true and lawful attorney to sue, compromise or do anything the said party of the second part might do to recover the same and to sue in the name of the said party of the second part for the recovery of said money and any and all expenses, legal fees, or otherwise attached thereto for the recovery of said monies shall be charged to the said party of the Second part and in the event that the said party of the second part has received full consideration for the sale and transfer of any of the property hereinabove described, that then the said
