Any clarifications or instructions concerning this Trust Agreement may be obtained by calling the above named attorney, who is requested to do everything reasonably necessary to implement the provisions of this Trust.

ARTICLE XVII

In the event the Grantor or Successor Trustee is named as the beneficiary under any policies of insurance, said Grantor or Successor Trustee shall hold the same, subject to the order of the owner of the policy, without obligation other than the safekeeping of any policies which may be delivered to the Trustee or Successor Trustee.

The owner of the policy retains all rights, options and privileges with respect to said policies. Upon receiving possession of insurance policies, proof of death of the insured, or upon maturity of any policies prior to the death of the insured, the Trustee or Successor Trustee shall use reasonable efforts to collect all sums payable on such policies for which the Grantor, this Trust or the Estate of Grantor is designated a beneficiary or owner. All insurance settlements as received by the Trustee or Successor Trustee shall become principal of the Trust Estate, except interest paid by the insurer, which shall be classed as income. The Trustee or Successor Trustee may compromise, arbitrate or otherwise adjust claims upon any of the policies. The receipt of the Trustee or Successor Trustee to the insurance company shall be a full discharge of said company.

The Trustee or Successor Trustee shall not be responsible for payment of any insurance premiums or any act or omission of the insured or the owner of the policy. The Trustee or Successor Trustee shall not be required to prosecute any action, to collect any insurance or to defend any action relating to any policy of insurance unless indemnified against costs and expenses, including attorney's fees.

ARTICLE XVIII

DISPOSITIONS DURING THE LIFE OF THE GRANTOR

During the life of the Grantor, the Trustee or Successor Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the Trust Estate, and shall collect the income thereof and shall dispose of the net income and principal as follows:

A. Income. The Trustee or Successor Trustee shall pay to the Grantor all of the net income of this Trust, in monthly or other convenient installments, but at least annually.

B. Principal. The Trustee or Successor Trustee may, in her discretion, pay or apply for the benefit of the Grantor, in addition to the income payments herein provided for, such amounts of the principal of the Trust Estate, up to the whole thereof, as the Trustee or Successor Trustee may from time to time deem necessary or advisable for the use and benefit of the Grantor.

C. Incapacity. If, in a Successor Trustee's and two physicians absolute judgment, the Grantor is so incapacitated by reason of illness, age or other cause that she is incapable of handling funds for her own use and benefit, or if unavailable to give prompt attention to her financial affairs, the Trustee or Successor Trustee may use so much of the net income and principal of the Trust Estate as the Successor Trustee, in said Successor Trustee's sole and absolute discretion, deems necessary or advisable, (1) for the comfort, support, maintenance and health of said incapacitated Grantor and any person who, in the judgment of the said Successor Trustee, is dependent upon said incapacitated Grantor, (2) for the payment of premiums on any insurance policies owned by said incapacitated Grantor, whether or not subject to the terms of this Trust Agreement, and (3) for the purpose of discharging any debt or obligation incurred by said incapacitated Grantor and believed by the said Successor Trustee to be a valid debt including, but not limited to: home rental/mortgage payments, interest, maintenance, utilities, installment obligations and established charitable contribution customs.

ARTICLE XIX

DISPOSITIONS AFTER DEMISE OF THE GRANTOR

A. Upon the demise of the Grantor, after payment of currently due taxes, debts, expenses and costs of last illness and funeral out of the decedent's Estate, the Successor Trustee shall take, hold, distribute and transfer the following described property as follows:

B. Except for the property referred to in Article XIX sub-paragraph C., all of Grantor's right, title and interest in cash and/or property to Grantor's daughters, Eloise Bryanne Hundley Wallace and Lee Ann Henbest, in equal shares, an amount, if available, equal to the Federal Estate and Gift Tax Unified Credit Exemption Equivalent not heretofore used. In making the computation necessary to determine the amount of this devise and in allocating assets thereto, the final determination shall be controlled by the value in connection with the Federal Estate Tax review. Such allocation may be made wholly or partly in kind by transferring to said devisees specific securities or other personal or real property or undivided interest therein as a part of such devise, as said Successor Trustee shall determine. Should either or both of Grantor's said children be not living at the time of Grantor's demise, then the interest that either of Grantor's said daughters would have received had they or she survived Grantor in death, shall be distributed to the then living children of Grantor's particular daughter who does not so survive Grantor in death, in equal shares, per stirpes and not per capita. The devises or bequests made in sub-paragraph C. shall be made a part of the Maximum Unified Credit Exemption Equivalent, although such devises or bequests are made to Grantor's daughters and grandchildren referred to in paragraph C.

The Successor Trustee shall select those assets or properties to be made the subject of the devise to Grantor's said daughters, as above provided.

D. All of Grantor's right, title and interest in and to all of the rest, residue and remainder of Grantor's estate, whether the same be real, personal or mixed, and wherever same may be located, to her said two daughters, Eloise Bryanne Hundley Wallace and Lee Ann Hundley, in equal shares; provided, however, that they both survive Grantor in death. Should either of Grantor's said daughters survive Grantor in death, then all of the property referred to in this paragraph shall be distributed as follows: one-half interest thereof to the survivor of my said two daughters and one-half per stirpes and not per capita to the issue of my said deceased daughter. Should both of Grantor's said children not survive Grantor in death, then and in that event, the interest that either of our said daughters would have received had she survived Grantor in death, shall be set over and distributed to their then respective living issue, per stirpes and not per capita.

Should either or both of Grantor's said daughters not survive Grantor in death, but leave then living issue and should any such living issue not be of legal age at the time, then the interest to be received by such grandchild shall be set over and distributed to a legally appointed guardian of the Estate of such grandchild.

E. Should it be necessary to appoint a Guardian of the Estate for Scot Weldon Hundley or Johnna Hundley, then Grantor directs that Eloise Bryanne Hundley Wallace be so appointed. Should Eloise Bryanne Hundley Wallace not survive Grantor in death, Grantor direct that Wade Hundley be so appointed. Further, should it be necessary to appoint a guardian for Heath S. Henbest or Glen Henbest, Grantor directs that Lee Ann Henbest be appointed as Guardian of their Estate. Should Lee Ann Henbest be not alive at the time, then Grantor directs that Eloise Bryanne Hundley Wallace be so appointed. If Eloise Bryanne Hundley Wallace be not living at the time, then Grantor directs that Wade Hundley be so appointed.

F. The Successor Trustee shall defer payment of any share of the trust principal or income vesting in and payable to any person or persons under age twenty-one (21), (hereinafter called "minor") until the minor reaches age twenty-one (21), but the Successor Trustee, in the Successor Trustee's discretion, may apply to the use of such minor so much of the principal or income thereof as the Successor Trustee may deem advisable. The Successor Trust may make payment of any principal or income applicable to the use of the minor: (a) by paying the same to a guardian or other person having the care or control of the minor, whose receipt shall be a full discharge for any such payment; (b) by paying it to a Custodian under the Oklahoma Uniform Transfers to Minor Act, whose receipt shall be a full discharge for any such payment; or (c) by spending it in such manner as the Successor Trustee, in the Successor Trustee's discretion, believes will benefit such minor, including the payment to the minor directly of such sums as the Successor Trustee may approve as an allowance.

G. If any beneficiary of any Trust is under a legal disability or, though not adjudged incompetent, is, by reason of illness or mental physical disability, unable, in the Successor Trustee's opinion, to use or disburse wisely such payment or distribution under the provisions of this Article, then the Successor Trustee may make such payment or distribution for the benefit of such beneficiary in such of the following ways as, in the Successor Trustee's discretion, shall be most desirable: (a) directly to such beneficiary; (b) to the relative or friend of such beneficiary; or (d) by the Successor Trustee using such payment directly for the benefit of such beneficiary. Distribution to any one or more of the foregoing shall operate as a complete acquittance of the duties of the Successor Trustee to make such payment or distribution.

H. If any heir and Grantor shall die in such circumstances that there is not sufficient evidence that said heir and Grantor died otherwise than simultaneously, it shall be deemed that such heir predeceased Grantor, except for Grantor's two daughters, who in such case, shall be deemed to have survived Grantor.

I. A power of appointment or right of withdrawal granted herein may be exercised by the holder thereof only if specific reference to the power granted herein is made in the written instrument purporting to exercise such power. In determining whether and to what extent a power of appointment granted herein has been exercised, the Successor Trustee may rely upon any instrument admitted to probate by the holder of the power. The Successor Trustee may act as if the holder died intestate if the Successor Trustee has no actual notice of a Will within three (3) months after the holder's death. A power of appointment exercisable by deed or a right of withdrawal may be exercised only by appropriate written instrument signed by the holder and delivered to the Successor Trustee during the holder's lifetime.

J. Upon the death of the Grantor, the Successor Trustee, at her sole discretion, may loan funds at a reasonable rate of interest, with or without security, to the estate of the Grantor after death, it being the intent of the Grantor that this discretion be exercised liberally. The propriety of any loan shall be solely within the discretion of the Successor Trustee. The Successor Trustee shall incur no liability as a result of such loan because such loan constitutes an investment which could not otherwise be made legally by the Successor Trustee.

K. The proceeds of any employee benefit plan which was qualified under Section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code 1954 or other Section of the Internal Revenue Code shall be held pursuant to the heirs provisions of this Trust; provided, however, that no federal estate nor state estate or inheritance taxes nor any debts, liabilities, last expenses or administrative costs of the deceased Grantor may be paid from such proceeds. The Successor Trustee shall keep accurate records which will reflect that such proceeds have not been used to pay any of the above described obligations of the Estate of the Grantor after her death.

L. If any of the above named heirs are unable or unwilling to take any portion of the trust estate to which she or he is entitled, then the Successor Trustee shall distribute the portion of the property of that beneficiary to her or his issue by right of representation and, if none, then to the other heirs proportionate to each heir's interest in the Trust Estate and, if no remaining heirs, then to all of the living heirs at law of the Grantor.

ARTICLE XX

The foregoing payments shall be made without regard to other resources of the beneficiary or the duty of any person to support the beneficiary and without the intervention of any guardian or like fiduciary; provided, however, that the Trustee or Successor Trustee shall insure and see to the application of the funds for the benefit of the beneficiary, so that the funds will not be used by any adult person, or

10. To operate, either solely or in conjunction with others, any business operation or enterprise of any nature, whether it be an individual business, general or limited partnership, joint venture or corporation, or other legal entity, for as long a time and in such manner as the Trustee or Successor Trustee deems proper for the best interests of the Trust, with full power to organize and/or operate as a sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation or other legal entity or to execute or join in any plan of refinancing, merger, consolidation or reorganization thereof with full power to borrow monies as the Trustee or Successor Trustee may deem advisable for the purpose thereof;

13. To enter into transactions with any other trusts in which the Grantor or the beneficiaries of this Trust Agreement, or any of them, have beneficial interests, even though any Trustee or Successor Trustee of such other trust is also a Trustee or Successor Trustee under this Trust Agreement;
14. To exercise all the foregoing powers alone or in conjunction with others, even though the Trustee or Successor Trustee is personally interested in the property that is involved, notwithstanding any rules of law related to divided loyalty or self-dealing;
15. To invest in common trust funds, to hold and invest the funds of all Trusts in solido without a physical division of the assets, as the Trustee or Successor Trustee in her discretion may determine.

B. Any Trustee or Successor Trustee may decline to act or may resign as Trustee or Successor Trustee at any time by delivering a written resignation to the beneficiaries of a Trust then subsisting.

C. Any Trustee or Successor Trustee may, from time to time, delegate to one or more of the remaining Successor Trustees any of her powers, duties or discretions. Every such delegation shall be in writing delivered to the delegate or delegates and shall remain effective for the time therein specified or until earlier revocation by a further writing similarly delivered. Everyone dealing with the Trustee or Successor Trustee shall be absolutely protected in relying upon the certificate of any Trustee or Successor Trustee as to whom the Trustee or Successor Trustee is acting for the time being and as to the extent of their authority by reason of any delegation or otherwise.

D. From the income of the other trusts hereby created or, if that be insufficient, from the principal thereof, the Trustee or Successor Trustee shall pay and discharge all expenses incurred in the administration of said trusts.
